Seguin, Guadalupe County, Texas.

Present Owner: Unknown

Date of Erection: Early 1850's

Architect: Unknown

Builder: Unknown

Present Condition: Bad

Number of Stories: One

Materials of Construction: Adobe mixed with river gravel; cypress and oak woodwork.

Other Existing Records: None

Additional Data:

This house was built by Joe Johnson for Isom, one of his slaves. The house is one story, and is constructed of adobe mixed with river gravel. It consists of four rooms and a hall with porch across the entire front. The roof is pitched and there is a fireplace in each room. In the front under the porch roof the wall is built up to the ceiling only. The space from ceiling to roof is open; it was never finished. This house was one of the first houses built in Seguin.

This information was secured from Mrs. Dora Vaughn of Seguin, Texas.
